

Recruitment of Postdoctoral Fellow

Division of Bioinformatics at National Cancer Center Japan is looking for Postdoctoral Fellow.

1. Job title and the number

Postdoctoral Fellow (hourly-wage employment), one person

2. Job description

- Postdoctoral Fellow is expected to do research related to topics in Division of Bioinformatics.

* For research topics, please go to our homepage:

<https://www.ncc.go.jp/en/ri/division/bioinformatics/index.html>

or find it by search words such as “bioinfo ncc japan” in google or the like,
and then look at “Research Projects”

- Academic activities such as research presentation, paper publication, and grant application

* Please feel free to ask mamkato and ncc.go.jp (please replace and) for questions.

3. Required qualifications

1. At least three-year experience in programming (e.g., C/C++/Perl/Java/Python)
2. Basic knowledge on one of the following areas: mathematics, statistics, information science, or similar fields
3. Knowledge and experience on a database language (e.g., SQL) and a statistical language (e.g., R) are desirable
4. Ph.D. (at the time of employment) obtained for a study in bioinformatics or in a similar field, or equivalent experiences with Ph.D.

4. Compensation

Status: Hourly-wage employment

Working hours: 30 hours per week (5 days a week, Mon–Fri; Excluding Saturdays, Sundays, national holidays). *Negotiable.

Duty hours: 10:00–17:00 (including one-hour break) *Negotiable

Overtime work is possible.

Salary: Paid in accordance with the NCC’s salary payment policy for hourly-wage employment

Example: 2,490 Japanese Yen or more per hour

Provide transportation allowance, social insurance (applicable when weekly working hours exceeds 20 hrs or more), employment insurance, (applicable when 20 hrs or more), bonus (applicable when 30 hrs or more), and paid holidays (depending on working hours)

5. Appointment period

The first appointment term ends at the end of the fiscal year. Each term is maximally one year, ending at the end of March. Reviewed at each term and can be renewed.

* The first 3 months in the first appointment term are the trial period.

6. Date of employment

On a rolling basis. *Negotiable.

7. Required materials

(1) CV with photo attached

Write your career from high school

(2) Relevant certification, license, or registration of your specialty (if any)

Photocopied into A4 in size if possible

(3) Educational certificate of the most recent degree

Photocopied into A4 in size if possible

(4) Research history (can be included in CV)

* Application documents of unsuccessful candidates are properly disposed of by NCC.

8. Closing date

On a rolling basis (close when the slot is filled)

9. Process

CV screening, and then selected candidates will be interviewed.

10. Materials submitted to

Personnel Department (Jinji-Ka)

National Cancer Center Japan

email: jinji-saiyoG@ncc.go.jp

Please write the following in the subject of the application email:

“Application for Division of Bioinformatics, Research Institute”

* Please note that the maximum message size is 20 MB. Check the size before sending your email.